

CLUB OF THREE AND INTELLIGENCE:

“Intelligence for Decision-Makers: New Threats and Opportunities”

British Academy, London: 19-20 May 2006

AGENDA

Friday 19 May

Venue: British Academy, 10 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1

1630

Tea

1700

Welcome: Lord Weidenfeld, Sir Lawrence Freedman

SESSION I: COLLECTION – THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

- Value of current methods: humint, elint, sigint, comint etc
- Contribution from non-secret sources, including unclassified
- The shifting balance between respective sources
- Future challenges, and opportunities: political and technical

Chair: Sir Richard Dearlove

Speakers: Sir Richard Mottram, Dr. August Hanning, Thérèse Delpech

1930 for 2000

Venue: Weston Room, Maughan Library of King's College, Chancery Lane, London WC2

WORKING DINNER

Chair: Lord Hurd of Westwell

Speaker: Dame Eliza Manningham Buller

Saturday 20 May

0900                    SESSION II: ASSESSMENT – THE VALUE OF NEW APPROACHES

- Current processes and structures: flaws and strengths
- Information asymmetry: too much unclassified rather than too little classified – how to combat
- Divergences between governments and private sectors
- Relevance of assessment products to policy-making
- Intelligence-sharing and its limits: between governments, with private sector, through international bodies

Chair:                Sir Michael Pakenham

Speakers:        Dr. David Gordon, William Shapcott,
                         Jean-Louis Gergorin

1115                    SESSION III: GOVERNANCE, LEGITIMACY AND PUBLIC OPINION

- Accountability: legal constraints, parliamentary procedures
- Paying for Intelligence
- Dangers to civil and political liberties
- Impact of Public Opinion and Role of the Media
- Role of Intelligence in winning/retaining public support for policies

Chair:                Prof. Sir Lawrence Freedman

Speakers:        Otto Schily MdB, Baroness Kennedy QC, Lionel Barber

1300                    BUFFET LUNCHEON

Speaker:           Efraim Halevi